Cover Letter

A cover letter or letter of introduction is your change to let a prospective placement host know some key information on you and what exactly you are looking for!

Some useful tips:

- Stick to one page
- Use an easy to read font such as Calibri, Ariel etc.
- Keep it professional, sometimes less is more!

A cover letter should cover the following:

Paragraph 1: What kind of position are you looking for?

Paragraph 2: Placement requirements

Paragraph 3: Why are you a strong candidate to do your placement with the organisation?

Paragraph 4: Wrap up! State your desire to discuss an opportunity further Employability Skills...

Employability Skills are the knowledge, attributes and experiences that you obtain to help you prepare for and successfully navigate through your career.

These skills will enable you to adapt and manage the constantly changing nature of your career.

1. Communication

Communication is not just the words we write or say.

It also means non-verbal communication such as eye contact and body language.

It is important to be able to listen to people and be able to understand where someone is coming from

2. Teamwork

Team work is being able to get along with people you work with.

It involves working together to achieve a shared goal.

There are very few jobs that do not require to work with a team at some point or another.

3. Problem Solving

Problem solving means finding solutions when you're faced with difficulties or setbacks.

Being able to use a logical processes to figure things out.

4. Initiative

SKILLS AND \ JOBS
CENTRES

Initiative is looking for things that need to be done and doing them without being asked.

This can also involve being able to come up with improvements or different ways of doing things to make the process or outcome more successful.

5. Planning & Organising

Planning and Organising is the ability to work out what you need to do and how you will do it.

We plan and organise things in our day to day lives without even thinking about it.

6. Self-Management

Self Management includes being able to complete a task without someone needed to check on you all of the time.

It is being reliable! Staying on top of deadlines and schedules and being able to ask for help if you need it.

7. Learning

SKILLS AND \

Learning is about wanting to understand new things!

It involves taking on new tasks and being able to adapt to change.

Continuously developing and expanding your knowledge!

8- Technology

Technological skills relate to both software and hardware.

Being able to use a computer for word processing, creating spreadsheets, making presentations etc.

Use of social media and online platforms to communicate.

Use hardware such as EFTPOS machines and Tablets.
