email@gmail.com

Career Objective

SKILLS AND JOBS
CENTRES

A career objective is optional on a resume. It helps to give the person reading your resume clarity as to what you are looking for.

It should never be more than 2-3 lines at most!

I am looking for a position as a case manager to support youth to achieve both vocational and non-vocational goals.

Skills & Attributes

SKILLS AND JOBS
CENTRES

- Your key skills and attributes need to grab the employers attention and highlight the skills and attributes relevant to the position you are applying for.
- They should always be listed in dot point form that is easy and clear to read!
- Dot points are easier to scan for key words.

Key Skills & Attributes

SKILLS AND JOBS
CENTRES

- Effective & well demonstrated verbal and written communication skills
- Passionate advocate and support for vulnerable members of the community

Cover Letter

SKILLS AND JOBS
CENTRES

A cover letter or letter of introduction is your chance to let a prospective placement host know some key information on you and what exactly you are looking for!

Some useful tips:

- Stick to one page
- Use an easy to read font such as Calibri, Ariel etc.
- Keep it professional, sometimes less is more!

A cover letter for placement should cover the following:

- Paragraph 1:           What kind of position are you looking for?
- Paragraph 2:           Placement requirements
- Paragraph 3:           Why are you a strong candidate to do your placement with the organisation?
- Paragraph 4:           Wrap up! State your desire to discuss an opportunity further

A cover letter should cover the following:

- 1. Identify the job you are applying for and where you learnt of it
- 2. Say why you are suitable for the job
- 3. Explain why the job fits in with your plans and why it is attractive to you
- 4. State that you would like to be interviewed and how you can be contacted

Employability Skills...

JOBS

Employability Skills are the knowledge, attributes and experiences that you obtain to help you prepare for and successfully navigate through your career.
